We are in receipt of the campaign finance report filed on behalf of the campaign account referenced above.

The report was received in this office after the deadline and unless you have proof of timely filing from this office, we are required to assess a late fee penalty as noted above. The late fee must be paid directly from campaign funds. Please make checks payable to State Board of Elections. If the campaign has insufficient funds in its account, the outstanding balance is the joint and several personal liabilities of the chairman and treasurer.

This letter is to advise you, pursuant to Election Law Article Section 13-331(C), the campaign finance report is not considered officially filed until the late fee has been paid. Election Law Article Section 13-335 grants you thirty (30) days from the date of receipt of this letter to remedy this failure by paying the late fee, or to show cause in writing why the late fee was not properly assessed before this matter is referred to the Office of the State Prosecutor for further enforcement action.

In accordance with Election Law Article Section 13-332, failure to file a campaign finance report or pay a late fee will prohibit you from being a candidate, chairperson and treasurer in any election for a period of five years. In addition, a conviction for failure to file a campaign finance report could result in the imposition of a fine up to $1000.00 and imprisonment for up to one year.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Victoria Molina at the listed numbers below.
